“When we feel the closeness of the living Christ, there the remedy to suffering and his joy is already present.” Pope Benedict XVI, first Sunday of Advent, 2006.

“To those who are at the service of the sick, with the help of Mary, may they witness God's goodness and fatherly concern. May the Holy Virgin comfort those who are afflicted by illness and support those who, like the Good Samaritan, soothe their physical and spiritual wounds.” Pope Benedict XVI, Sermon on World Day of the Sick, 2006.

“The next International Eucharistic Congress (2008) will be an opportunity to worship Jesus Christ present in the Sacrament of the Altar, to entrust ourselves to him as Hope that does not disappoint, to receive him as that medicine of immortality which heals the body and the spirit.” Pope Benedict XVI Sermon on World Day of the Sick, 2007.

Healing

Jesus healed many people of their sins, sicknesses and brokenness. He gave his disciples, including us today, the gift of healing. Healing as a spiritual gift can take many forms. There can be spiritual, psychological, financial and relational healing. A personal relationship with Jesus and a strong sacramental life are essential for any type of healing as is a vibrant prayer life. Some people have a gift of one type of healing or another.
